

Client Name

Environmental Program Director Profile

Diligent and service-oriented professional with demonstrated success in monitoring / overseeing environmental performance of organizations and developing / implementing environmental strategies to promote sustainable development.

Recognized for performing on-site investigation, preparing reports and work plans, collecting / processing data, establishing project needs, and interpreting permits and other environmental documents to meet project scope. Skilled in preparing several EISs and EAs on buildings, waste water treatment plants, and transportation systems. Renown for implementing environmental practices, devising strategies, and meeting targets. Skilled in directing entire project lifecycle process and ensuring timely delivery, while complying with company's quality and regulatory standards. Championed in community planning, environmental studies, and transportation / hazardous waste.

Area of Expertise

- Environmental Assessments
- Program / Project Management
- QA / QC Auditing
- Data Management
- Strategic / Transportation Planning
- Environmental Impact Statement
- Team Leadership / Building
- Economic Development
- Site Remediation

Career Experience

PDMG / Environmental Planner, AECOM, Chicago, IL

2008 – Present

Performed services as program delivery manager for applicants in Houston, Texas in order to ensure seamless workflow. Attended FEMA training in Grants Manager in order to enhance skills and abilities. Facilitate on recovery from superstorm Sandy, while assigning to New York for two years. Assigned to prepare environmental evaluations for major capital improvements in five boroughs of New York City. Carry out long range planning in communities impacted by natural disasters. Address funding needs for public infrastructure projects by receiving training in Washington by FEMA. Contribute in public meetings to determine long term community needs. Formulate draft outline for long-term community recovery plan and draft sections of final report to ensure zero discrepancies. Determine and address queries of access, tourism, and safety for community of Sabine Pass in Port Arthur, Texas.

- Completed environmental assessment for waste water treatment plant to protect against future flooding events.
- Acted as central repository member, while participating in numerous kick-off meetings in upstate New York.
- Served as Environmental Planner in Utah (2010) and Environmental Planner in Beaumont, Texas (2008) to meet scope.

Senior Environmental Planner, Collins Engineers, Inc., Milwaukee, WI

2006 – 2008

Provided marketing community planning services to other consulting firms and local communities, while complying with company standards and regulations. Administered in public involvement and community planning for Hwy 50 Corridor Study in Walworth County to streamline operations.

- Attained measurable business outputs by QA / QC auditing of Wisconsin engineering projects.

Senior Environmental Planner, EMCS, Milwaukee, WI

2004 – 2006

Served as Department Manager for Environmental and Community Planning to ensure seamless workflow. Carried out marketing community planning services to other consulting firms in order to optimize operations.

- Directed report organization and production for MMSD 2020 facilities plan, including data management report and the wet weather report.
- Oversaw community planning and environmental evaluations for WIS 29 Corridor Preservation Study Outside Green Bay and Rothschild Interchange in Wausau.

Area Manager, Parsons Transportation Group, Milwaukee, WI

2001 – 2004

Acted as principal-in-charge for Freeway Systems Operation Analysis for Wisconsin DOT in order to deliver quality service. Facilitated Chicago office on EISs for high-speed rail and freeway corridor study to mitigate loopholes.

- Managed project for Kenosha-Racine-Milwaukee Corridor Transit Study as project contained working with small rural communities to establish alternatives and build consensus for project.

Area Manager, Parson-Brinckerhoff, Milwaukee, WI

1997 – 2001

Played key role in marketing firm's community planning services, while adhering to rules and regulations. Leveraged expertise in executing strategic selling procedure in office to achieve goals and objectives. Oversaw and participated in community planning studies in order to produce tangible, positive impact. Formulated environmental document for major interchange project in Chicago. Worked on several community planning projects for public / private economic development corporations to meet project scope.

- Served as Principal-In-Charge of Transport 2020 Project to complete within budget and time constraints.

Additional Experience

Senior Associate at Barton-Aschman, Milwaukee, WI

Senior Associate at BRW, Inc., Milwaukee, WI

Senior Community Planner and Milwaukee Office Manager at Envirodyne Engineers, Inc., Milwaukee, WI

Vice President at Triad Engineering, Milwaukee, WI

Program Manager, Environmental and Community Planning at CH2M Hill, Milwaukee, WI

Community and Transportation Planning at Harland Bartholomew and Associates, Memphis, TN

Education

Master of Science in Community and Regional Planning | University of Texas, Austin

Bachelor of Arts Sociology | St. Norbert College, Wisconsin

Professional Affiliations

American Institute of Certified Planners | Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society | American Planning Association